

Remote Learning Responsibilities

Daily Commitment

Learning Activities

Family Responsibilities

Elementary (average 6 hours per day)	Computer Based	Elementary School
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> English Language Arts– 90 minutes Math– 60 minutes Science– 30 minutes (alternate days with Social Studies) Social Studies– 30 minutes (alternate days with Science) Offline work– 3 hours (activities, projects, homework, study time) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teacher-led recorded lessons Quizzes and Tests Audio clips Video clips Game-based learning 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parental supervision Support navigating courses Provide reading support Less assistance needed as students gain in reading level Communicate absences
Middle School (average 6 hours per day)	Offline	Middle School
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Each class a student is enrolled in will meet during their scheduled time daily to provide direct or flipped instruction (15 - 45) minutes daily Offline work– 3 hours (activities, projects, homework, study time) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Homework Reading Independent practice Projects Experiments 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parental supervision Support navigating courses Ensure weekly progress Communicate absences
High School (average 6 hours per day)	Live/Synchronous	High School
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Each class a student is enrolled in will meet during their scheduled time daily to provide direct or flipped instruction (15 - 45) minutes daily Offline work– 3 hours (activities, projects, homework, study time) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teacher-led live lessons Actively participate with teacher Commit to schedule set by teacher Required interaction 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Parental monitoring Support navigating courses Ensure weekly progress Communicate absences